JOSEPH S. MANCINELLI

HAMILTON, Ontario – The Labourers' International Union of North America (LIUNA) today endorsed Michael Ignatieff and the Liberal Party of Canada for its commitment to help ease the economic pressure on middle-class families.

"LIUNA represents working men and women in a wide range of industries – and Michael Ignatieff's platform and the Liberal Family Pack offer solutions that fit the priorities of our families."

ROCCO DAVIS

Special Assistant to the General President

"A Liberal government's policies will support stronger public pensions, create good-paying jobs for our workers, defend Canada's universal health care system, and help those in our society who need an extra hand – while at the same time offering a responsible fiscal plan that puts families first."

VINCENT R. MASINO

DENNIS L. MARTIRE

MANO FREY

ROBERT E. RICHARDSON

LIUNA is a one of Canada's most powerful and respected trade unions with the goal to help improve wages, benefits and working conditions for its members. It has represented workers in North America for over a century, with diverse membership including workers in building construction, heavy construction and highway construction, manufacturing and commerce, health care and the public sector.

RALPH E. COLE

JOHN F. PENN

OSCAR DE LA TORRE

JOHN F. HEGARTY

"The Liberal commitment to investing in middle-class families is in line with LIUNA's priorities. These are commitments that are important to us – but the Conservatives aren't interested in middle-class families and the NDP don't have a reliable plan to deliver on their promises."

MICHAEL S. BEARSE

General Counsel

"On May 2nd, we encourage all of our members to vote Liberal because they offer voters the choice of a credible plan to help families now and defend public health care."
